VO: It's important to make sure your family has a plan in case of an emergency. We talked to this family to see if each of them knew where to meet if they were not together when something happened.

MAN: Okay, so if a natural disaster happened and we were outside the home, we would all meet at the park. That's our meeting point. That's where we would say: Go here. This is safe. Dad will be here. We meet there, we'll be fine.

BOY: Well, we would probably just meet out in front of the house.

SEAN: Our meeting place is our neighbor's house because she is my Mom's good friend.

MOM: We all have a meeting spot, which is a bus stop. The reason for the bus stop is simply because nobody's gonna be there. No buses, no people, there's probably gonna be no traffic there. And it's a location that's in the middle of all three schools, so we can safely meet there. Safely and quickly.
